We can expect a more detailed examination of participants of participants of participants of participants with large market quotas, especially in the sectors that are expressly mentioned in the report. Market quotas are central to the legal domain test, which is indicative of market power. In the marã of 2020, the Department of Company, Strong and Competition published 'Anti-Price Gouging Regulations' that applied to a prescribed list of essential goods in accordance with the disaster management law throughout the pandemic Covid-19. The main considerations in the determination of the domain of market quotas and market power. The factors considered include transportation costs, the degree of transfronizing comfronation, commercial barriers and regular restrictions. In terms of section 65 (6) of the Competition Law, a person who has suffered losses or damages as a result of a prohibited practice can institute an action for damage to a civil court. The guidelines for the determination of administrative fines for prohibited practices establish six steps involving the following steps: the determination of the base quantity (with reference to the turnover affected in the relevant year); the duration of violation; a comparison of the base value with the statutory limit of 10%; consideration of aggravating and attenuating factors; and another comparison of the resulting value in relation to the statute limit. limit.
